The software is compatible with Apple Mac and Microsoft Windows operating systems, and has been designed by the experts to provide the best experience with video, audio and photo. With the first half of the season already in the books, it's starting to become clear which teams have been able to find some success in the early going. While the successes of some teams are great to see, it's important to note that there are many teams who have been struggling so far this season. As such, there's little reason to be overly optimistic or overly pessimistic about the future of these struggling teams. That being said, here are the five teams currently out to prove they belong in the playoffs: 5. Tampa Bay Lightning Currently in sixth place, the Tampa Bay Lightning have enjoyed some excellent goaltending from Andrei Vasilevskiy, as he has the sixth-best goals-against average of the group at 2.11, while posting a 0.906 save percentage. While Vasilevskiy looks like he has put his struggles of a few seasons ago behind him, it should be noted that he struggled against the Pittsburgh Penguins earlier in the season. As such, it remains to be seen if Vasilevskiy will be able to turn it around and protect Tampa Bay's six-game winning streak. 4. Toronto Maple Leafs
